Hi Kate!

Another gift to share, so read on!

Analysis paralysis, budget, LIFE... it seems like something always gets in the way of a decorating project.

Next thing you know, it's 3 years down the road and you're still in the same frustrating place. No place.

It doesn't have to be this way – I promise!

What if I told you that in just 1 week you could stop spinning your wheels and start creating your own most perfectly beautiful home?

Like these women did. Look at these project pics they took on their phones!!

Yum!

Lynda Gianetta – Littleton, MA

And how about these...

Peggy Stetson – Washougal, WA

Sleek! Yum!

What an adorable craft-room, yum!

Mary Swink – Glendora, CA

Here's how THESE women - with no former design training - overcame the same challenges YOU have.

My comprehensive online course, The Decorating Genius System!

DGS has empowered thousands of women just like you to FINALLY create those beautiful results and home you're wishing for.

Enough with feeling unsure. Enough with feeling design envy!
E.N.O.U.G.H!

I've taken my 14+ years as an award-winning designer, my design education and my coaching thousands of women and distilled it into ONE SIMPLE SYSTEM for real women to use.

Decorating Genius System is powerfully packed with the precise design strategies you need to finally get your pinboard-worthy decorating results...the beautiful home you want.

Decorating Genius System has 7 easy, short videos that deliver results.

I purposely kept the videos short and entertaining, at 30 minutes or less in length.

That means you can take it one video a day and be on your way to real results in just one week; or complete it in a weekend.

Or you can binge watch in under 2 hours 20 minutes. (Unlike my endless “Game Of Thrones” binge!)

Either way – it’s wise time, not lotsa time!

I love coaching women in design to get results like the ones I’ve shared.

SO, now I’m sharing another bonus you can enjoy, still at the special limited time $97 offer. Keep reading!

“Before DGS, I purchased XXX and XXX systems. (Note: out of respect we’re blacking out those names). I didn’t find them to be practical or tailored to someone like me without a design background. But with DGS, it all MADE SENSE. Donna’s step-by-step process allows you to move forward, use what you own if you want and when you add in the private FB page, it’s a win-win situation!” – Kym Kerstein, MA
